A Tribute to the Departed
Birth is a Beginning
Birth is a beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey:

From childhood to maturity
And youth to age;
From innocence to awareness
And ignorance to knowing;
From foolishness to discretion
And then, perhaps, to wisdom;

From weakness to strength
Or strength to weakness –
And, often, back again;
From health to sickness
And back, we pray, to health again;

From offense to forgiveness,
From loneliness to love,
From joy to gratitude,
From pain to compassion,
And grief to understanding –
From fear to faith;

From defeat to defeat to defeat –
Until, looking backward or ahead,
We see that victory lies
Not at some high place along the way,
But in having made the journey, stage by stage,
A sacred pilgrimage.

Birth is a beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey,
A sacred pilgrimage –
To life everlasting.

Sidney Mayman, remembered by Cheri, Bill, David Mayman; Ariana, Shane, McKenna, Zachary Silver: Your memory is a blessing and your legacy lives on through your grandchildren and great-grandchildren who bring us such joy.

Gregory Moiseeff, remembered by Cheri, Bill, David Mayman; Ariana, Shane, McKenna, Zachary Silver: Dad/Grandpa/Great Grandpa: The greatest gift you gave us was yourself. In the book you wrote chronicling the stories of our family’s lives dating back 200 years and the world events that shaped their lives, you said you’d like to be remembered most for having built a bridge between our predecessors and your children, their children, and future generations. We honor you by promising to never tear down that bridge. You are forever in our hearts and souls.
